

CIT (Counselor In Training) Program

The Schuylkill Center's CIT Program is designed to provide adolescents, ages 13 to 17, with valuable work experience while maintaining a fun, camp atmosphere. This is a volunteer-based program in which working hours can be exchanged for service hours for school or an organization. A commitment of 5 days a week is required, however, the full nine weeks of camp is not. CITs will sign up for the weeks and age groups they would like to work with.

Duties Include:

- Assisting with the supervision of campers ages 3-12
- Assisting camp counselors with responsibilities and activities as needed
- Assisting staff with additional projects

Qualifications:

- Between the ages of 13-17 years old
- Responsible work ethic
- Comfortable in the outdoors
- Demonstrated ability to be a positive role model for campers

Dates of Program: June 20, 2022 - August 19, 2022 (with one Saturday training with date in May TBD)

To apply, please submit a one page essay about why you would want to volunteer as a CIT with the Schuylkill Center to:
